

PUBLIC SPEAKING

Prof.ssa Federica Missaglia Faculty of Scienze linguistiche e letterature straniere

Course Aims

The course aims to introduce students to the expressive, structural, rhetorical and stylistic features of public speaking and to enable them to analyse public speeches.

Methodology

The methodology is both content-based and interactive, i.e. participatory. Lectures are interwoven with class discussions and participants are asked to give short presentations in class.

Course description

The course presents the main linguistic features and expressive tools - verbal and non-verbal - of oral communication in specialised fields.
