

Curriculum Vitae June 2016

Personal information

Name Antonio Pesce
Date and place of birth September 2 1978, Aversa (CE), Italy
E-mail antonio.pesce@intesasanpaolo.com

Education and training

June 2014 PhD Doctor of Philosophy in Economics, Catholic University of Milan
Advisor Prof.ssa Laura Barbieri
Dissertation: "Essay on Economic Cycles in Emerging and Advanced Countries: Synchronization, International Spillovers and the Decoupling Hypothesis"

September 2012 Summer School Bayesian Methods in Economics and Finance, Centro Interuniversitario di Econometria, Bertinoro

August/September 2011 Summer School Panel Data Econometrics, Centro Interuniversitario di Econometria, Bertinoro

December 2004 Master's degree Finance and Banking, University of Rome La Sapienza, Faculty of Statistics

September 2003 BA Bachelor in Economics cum laude, University of Rome La Sapienza, Faculty of Economics
Advisor Prof. Francesco Carlucci
Dissertation: "La disoccupazione nel Regno Unito e nell'Area Euro: un confronto"

Work experience

Since 2005 IntesaSanapolo Bank. Economist at Research Department -Coordination International Research Network-

2004-2005 FORMIT Foundation. Researcher for the Research Program "Strategie ed Azioni di Sostegno al Trasferimento Tecnologico: Analisi di Esperienze di Successo ed Elaborazione di Best Practice"

Publications

Book:
2015, Economic Cycles in Emerging and Advanced Countries. Contributions to Economics, Springer

Articles:
2016 (Forthcoming) The Decoupling of Emerging Economies: Theoretical and Empirical Puzzle. Journal of Economic Surveys

2014, "International (Spillovers in) Macroeconomic Linkages and the Decoupling Phenomenon", Journal of International Money and Finance, volume 48 (2014)

2008, "Long-term Growth Perspectives and Economic Convergence of CEE and SEE Countries", Transition Studies Review, July 2008 (Salsecci Gianluca co-author)

2004, "Sulla Politica Monetaria della BCE: La Svolta del 2003", Economia Italiana N. 3 settembre-dicembre 2004 (Rotondi Zeno co-author)

Membership and Academic Fellowship

2016 Adjunct Professor in Quantitative Methods, Catholic University of Milan

Since 2015 Honorary Fellowship in Econometrics, Catholic University of Milan

Since 2013 Member of the "Italian Econometric Association" (SIdE)

Research Interests

Quantitative Macroeconomics, Real Business Cycles, Econometrics and Statistical Methods